through creative expression & connection with others

Please join us in honoring your baby and yourself

The Dance Studio at Noe Valley Ministry

1021 Sanchez St (btwn 23rd & Elizabeth Streets) San Francisco, CA 94114

The loss of a baby is a heartbreaking and profound experience. It is a journey of new and unexpected emotions that are sometimes difficult to navigate. In this workshop, we will honor our babies and ourselves through creative expression--sharing stories, connecting with others, writing, mindfulness and creating a keepsake to take home. We will set aside some time to honor ourselves as Mother's and to celebrate, in our own way, Mother's Day.
